

CV Andrea PEZZANA, MD

Degree in Medicine and Surgery in 1988 with the voting of 110/110 cum laude. Master in Science of the Nutrition, in 1992 with voting 50/50 cum laude. Degree in Clinical and Community Psychology in 2007.

Working at the Dietetic Department of "San Giovanni Antica Sede Hospital", initially as a medical doctor (1990-1993) and since 1994 as Director of the Unit. Now working at San Giovanni Bosco Hospital (Torino) as Director of Dietetics and Clinical Nutrition Unit.

In October 2003 he was appointed Referring for the Home Parenteral Nutritional Program in cancer patients for the Oncologic Institute of East Turin.

President of Piemonte Regional Section of A.D.I. (Italian Association of Clinical Nutrition) for four years (1999-2002). In 2001 and 2002 coordinator of the First National "Obesity Day", in Piemonte Region.

Member of the representative advisory technical group of the network of the Dietetic and Clinical Nutrition Departments of Piemonte Region, created inside the Councillorship to the Health of Piemonte Region in 1999.

Member of the multidisciplinary work group for the creation of Guidelines on the collective scholastic and hospital catering as coordinator.

He has carried out didactic activities in many Universities (Torino, Pavia, Pollenzo), public and private institutions. As far as the scientific research is concerned, he has published 230 scientific articles (books, articles, invited papers, abstracts).

He's been participating to the Writing Committee of "Minerva Gastroenterologica and Dietologica" journal (since 2000) and "Mediterranean Journal of Nutrition and Metabolism (since 2005).

Since 2006 he's a member of the National Council of the Governors of Slow Food Italy for four years (2006-2010 and 2010-2014). Member of Slow Food International Council for 2007-2011.

He has been working with the "Alice Foundation" Hospital of Darmstadt (Germany) for the project "Healthy Food in Hospital – A value chain approach".