

Marité Elizabeth Voitier Rose

Degree in Psychology from the Santa Maria la Antigua University (Panama) and Degree in Labour Psychology from the University of La Serena (Chile), Master in Labour Psychological Assessment and Diagnosis from the USAL University (Buenos Aires, Argentina) and Postgraduate in Commerce and International Marketing by the Autonomous University of Barcelona (Spain). She was a Professor at Columbus University (Panama), Selection Director of the Bracco Group (Argentina) and Coordinator of the Commercial Department of the City Council of Panama City (Panama). Currently, she is a Human Resources Consultant and Professor of HR in the Master in International Business Management of the Autonomous University of Barcelona. In his professional career, he has participated in numerous research and consulting projects in the field of Human Resources Management.