

PhD in Environmental Geo-Engineering from 2006, Rossana Bellopede is actually enrolled at the Politecnico di Torino as Associate Professor in the scientific sector ING/IND 29 (Raw Material Engineering)

Author of more than 90 papers published in international journals, conference proceedings and as book chapters, she is assistant for the lessons and laboratories of the following courses at the Politecnico di Torino: "Raw and Waste Materials Engineering", "Occupational Safety Engineering", "Circular Economy in Building and Construction Sector".

Her research activity has been developed on recovery and treatment of solid waste focusing also to the safety issues, durability of natural stone, bowing of natural stone slabs, testing to asbestos content measure.

Actually she is a responsible for Marble Laboratory and Multimodal Laboratory at DIATI – Politecnico di Torino.

She is actively collaborating with national association in mining sector (ANIM) and in the international association on mineral processing and extractive metallurgy for mining and recycling of raw materials (PROMETIA).

She is expert of Technical Committee of CEN 246 "Natural Stone" inside WG2 "Test Method".