

Ivana Kunda is a Full Professor and the Head of the International and European Private Law Department at the Faculty of Law of the University of Rijeka, Croatia and a Vice-Dean for Research. She was awarded the University of Rijeka Foundation Award for the Year 2008 and faculty of Law in Rijeka Award for Research Excellence for 2019. She received grants including the Fulbright Research Fellow scholarship in 2010 for research at the Columbia University, the GRUR scholarship in 2007, 2008 and 2014 for research at the MPI for Innovation and Competition and the IRZ scholarship in 2002 for research at the MPI for Comparative and International Private Law and the University of Hamburg.

Ivana Kunda authored papers and book chapters published in Croatia and abroad and a monograph on overriding mandatory provisions. Ivana was or currently is involved in research under a dozen EU, international and national projects, in particular on the European private international law including three EU-funded projects on family and succession matters and five EU-funded projects on cross-border civil procedure. She is a co-editor of the Balkan Yearbook of European and International Law (BYEIL, Springer), member of the Editorial Board of the Santander Art and Culture Law Review (SACLR) and an editor of the global blog www.conflictflaws.net. Ivana Kunda is also a member of the Centre for Private International Law at the Aberdeen University in UK, and international team at the UNESCO Chair on Cultural Property Law of the University of Opole in Poland. She was visiting professor at the University of Navarra, the IULM, the University Antwerp, the University of Ljubljana, University of Zagreb, University of Osijek, University of Udine, WIPO-Turin LLM in Intellectual Property, WIPO Summer School in Dubrovnik and the MSU Croatia Summer Institute in Intellectual Property Law.

Ivana is regularly called upon by domestic and foreign institutions (ERA, EJTN) to provide training to judges and legal professionals in the area of EU private international law. She has been involved in the drafting of the Croatian Private International Law Act and Family Act as a member of the government-appointed working group. Among her professional memberships are International Law Association (ILA) - where she was a member to the Committee on Intellectual property and Private International Law, ATRIP and Croatian Copyright Society, while she also acts as deputy-president of the Croatian Comparative Law Association. She is listed as arbitrator at the Permanent Arbitral Court of the Croatian Chamber of Economy and as a mediator at the She passed the Croatian Bar Exam in 2004 and acts as a sworn court interpreter for English since 2001. From 2013 to 2018 she acted as a member to the Croatian Boards of Appeal for Trademarks and Designs.