

Pier Luigi Roncaglia

Pier Luigi Roncaglia is a founder and the managing partner of Spheriens.

Pier Luigi has a Law degree from the University of Bologna. He was admitted to the Florence Bar in 1994 and to plead before the Italian Supreme Court in 2006.

Pier Luigi mainly handles civil litigation in all areas of IP before all Italian courts, the General Court and the Court of Justice of the European Union as well as criminal litigation and anti-counterfeiting.

Pier Luigi lectures regularly at the Fashion Law Lab of Harvard Law School, the King's College, The Dickson Poon School of Law (London), the WIPO Master of Laws (LL.M) in Intellectual Property in Turin and the Luiss Fashion Law Master. He was lecturer at the Master in Luxury Goods Management – EMLUX – at the Catholic University of Milan (2009-2014). In 2019 he was also speaker at the McCarthy Institute Symposium, Golden Gate University's Schools of Law and Business. In 2023 he lectured at Fashion Management Master at the IESEG of Paris.

Pier Luigi is a Member of the Editorial Board of Giurisprudenza Annotata di Diritto Industriale and a Member of INTA, ECTA, AIPLA and MARQUES.

Pier Luigi has served as Member of the Board of Directors of the International Trademark Association (INTA) (2009-2011), as Editor in Chief of the The Trademark Reporter® (2012-2013) and has been Adjunct Professor at the University of Florence – School of Economics (2002-2013).

Pier Luigi is the author of more than 25 papers and articles on various Intellectual Property law subjects and he is a frequent speaker in Intellectual Property conferences.