

GEERTRUIDA PETRONELLA MARIA VAN HAREN

Petra van Haren is director of the European School Heads Association www.esha.org . She holds the MBA degree in management of Education and was president of the Dutch School Heads association AVS (union and professional organization for school leaders) from 2014- 2022. Before that she was teacher in an educational leaderships Master program, she was president of a Dutch schoolboard and she has been school head and educator. She has broad experience in collaborations and negotiations with public bodies including ministries and has been board member in several governing bodies in education, professional development in education and the educational labour market. She has contributed to several (EU) projects, publications and researches. <https://www.linkedin.com/in/petra-van-haren-mba-me-701b9b15>